State Nondiscrimination Laws:
Housing

No updates required since July 28, 2022

NOTE:
As of February 11, 2021, the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) issued an memorandum (HUD No. 21-021) confirming that it is illegal to discriminate in housing based on sexual orientation and gender identity. As a result, LGBTQ people across the country can file housing discrimination complaints with HUD. Some states also have explicit laws against housing discrimination based on sexual orientation and/or gender identity, and these are reported below. These state laws remain important so that LGBTQ people are protected against discrimination at every level of government, and because they are often passed alongside additional protections not yet enshrined in federal law, such as protections against discrimination in public places.
