Bans on Transgender Youth Participation in Sports

No updates required since April 29, 2021

Alabama
- State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See HB391 (April 2021). Applies to K-12.

Alaska
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Arizona
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Arkansas
- State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See HB1570/SB354 (March 2021). Applies to K-12 and higher education.

California
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Colorado
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Connecticut
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Delaware
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

District of Columbia
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Florida
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity
Georgia
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Hawai‘i
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Idaho
- State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See HB500 (March 2020). Applies to K-12 and higher education.
- Currently, a temporary injunction is blocking enforcement of the law, but the case is still active in the court system pending further judicial review. See Hecox v. Little (August 2020).

Illinois
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Indiana
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Iowa
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Kansas
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Kentucky
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Louisiana
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Maine
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity
Maryland
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Massachusetts
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Michigan
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Minnesota
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Mississippi
  - State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See SB2536 (March 2021). Applies to K-12 and higher education.

Missouri
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Montana
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Nebraska
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Nevada
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

New Hampshire
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

New Jersey
  - State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity
New Mexico
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

New York
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

North Carolina
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

North Dakota
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Ohio
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Oklahoma
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Oregon
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Pennsylvania
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Rhode Island
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

South Carolina
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

South Dakota
- State policy, via executive order, bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See Executive Order 2021-05 (March 2021; K-12) and Executive Order 2021-06 (March 2021; college).
Tennessee
- State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See SB228/HB3 (March 2021). Applies to middle and high school (5th-12th grades).

Texas
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Utah
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Vermont
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Virginia
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Washington
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

West Virginia
- State law bans transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity. See HB3293 (April 2021). Applies to high school and higher education.

Wisconsin
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Wyoming
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

U.S. Territories

American Samoa
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity
Guam
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Northern Mariana Islands
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

Puerto Rico
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity

U.S. Virgin Islands
- State law does not ban transgender students from participating in sports consistent with their gender identity