

State Legislature Interference in Elections

Scoring

- State legislature has enacted law(s) that allow it to seize power over elections, -1 point
- State has no applicable law, 0 points
- Note: Following the 2020 election, partisan actors sought to undermine the will of the voters and pursue a strategy to overturn election results in several states. In 2021, some state legislatures enacted laws that increase the danger of election subversion by giving the legislatures more power to interfere in election administration.
